

TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF ENGAGEMENT

1 ENGAGEMENT

- 1.1 These provisions set out the standard terms and conditions of engagement (TE) of Rowe Partners Certified Practicing Accountants, its partners, controlled companies and its employees, representatives and agents (collectively referred to as "Rowe Partners"). The Engagement Letter and these terms and conditions, including any written variation (together called "this Agreement") will apply to all work to be performed for the Client. Rowe Partners will provide the services described in the Engagement Letter or as otherwise agreed (the "Services").
- 1.2 This Agreement constitutes the entire agreement between Rowe Partners and the Client. Where there is any inconsistency between the Engagement Letter and these terms, the Engagement Letter shall prevail. The Client acknowledges that any special purpose for which the Client requires the Services has been recorded in these documents and that it is not acquiring the Services for any other purpose.
- 1.3 The Client acknowledges that Rowe Partners is engaged under this Agreement as an independent contractor.
- 1.4 In the event that any of the terms of this Agreement are or at any time become invalid, void illegal or unenforceable, that particular term will be severed from this Agreement and the remainder shall survive unaffected.
- 1.5 The offer contained in the Engagement Letter may only be accepted by the Client by written confirmation within 28 days from the date of issue, unless otherwise indicated, if not the offer shall lapse.
- 1.6 In the event that the Engagement Letter is addressed to persons other than or in addition to the Client, including related entities of the Client, ("Addressees") then as well as agreeing to these terms on its own behalf, the Client enters into this Agreement as the agent for each of the Addressees. The Client warrants that it has the authority to do so.

2 OBJECTIVES AND SCOPE OF WORK

- 2.1 The Services covered under this Engagement letter are those described in the Engagement Letter.
- 2.2 For any additional professional accounting services that may be requested, a variation to the Engagement Letter may be provided.
- 2.3 Both you and us may execute this Agreement (and modifications to it) by electronic means.
- 2.4 Both you and us must agree in writing to any modification to this Agreement.

3 CONFLICT OF INTEREST

- 3.1 Prior to entering the engagement and during the engagement we will attempt to ensure there is no conflict of interest.
- 3.2 You must immediately advise us if, during the engagement you become aware of any conflict of interest or potential conflict of interest or there is a change of circumstances which may result in a conflict.
- 3.3 If a conflict of interest does arise during the engagement, we will take appropriate steps to resolve the conflict as agreed by all parties involved and permitted by law.
- 3.4 We are obliged to consider whether our clients create any threats to compliance with our Fundamental Principles and where we cannot reduce the risk to an acceptable level, we are obliged to cease the engagement under the Code (section 320) to decline or cease the client engagement.

4 UNAVOIDABLE DELAYS

- 4.1 Rowe Partners shall not be liable for any failure or delay in providing the Services if that failure caused, or contributed to, by an act or event (including the non-performance of the Client's obligations) that is beyond the control of Rowe Partners or was not foreseen at the time of entering into this Agreement. Rowe Partners will advise the Client of the delay and cause. Rowe Partners shall be entitled to review its fees where such delays occur.

5 SPECIFIED ENGAGEMENT PERSONNEL

- 5.1 The Client acknowledges that:
- 5.1.1 Rowe Partners has an interest in retaining its employees for the purposes of carrying on its business.
 - 5.1.2 All of the persons who are, at the commencement of Rowe Partners' engagement by the Client, employed by Rowe Partners ("the Employees") have agreed with Rowe Partners that they will not be employed by, solicit or provide services to any person who, during the Employee's employment, was a current or former client of Rowe Partners.
- 5.2 The Client agrees that the Client will not solicit Employees who have been assigned to perform the Services for the Client to work for the Client or to otherwise procure or encourage any Employee to breach the Employee's contractual obligations with Rowe Partners whether or not the Client has notice of the same. The Client's obligations pursuant to this clause continue for a period of 6 months following the end of Rowe Partners' engagement by the Client.
- 5.3 The Client may request in writing that Rowe Partners provide details as to a particular employee's contractual obligations to Rowe Partners insofar as they are relevant to the matters referred to in clause 5.2. Rowe Partners shall not be under any obligation to provide information in response to such a written request but, if it does not do so within 21 days then clause 5.2 will cease to apply that time not apply to any obligations of the employee of which the Client does not have actual or constructive notice.
- 5.4 In the event that the Client breaches clause 5.2 by procuring an employee of Rowe Partners to work for the Client in a role which involves the employee performing the same or similar duties to the duties performed by the employee while working with Rowe Partners, then without limiting any other remedies, the Client shall be liable for liquidated damages equal to 25% of that employee's annual remuneration when last employed by Rowe Partners.
- 5.5 Notwithstanding anything else in this clause 6, the Client will not have breached clause 5.2 by:
- a) offering employment to an employee of Rowe Partners where the duties to be performed by the employee will be performed outside South Australia and where there is no substantial connection between the employee's employment by the Client and the state of South Australia;
 - b) offering employment to non-accounting employees of Rowe Partners;
 - c) any action done in relation to an employee whose employment has been terminated by Rowe Partners;
 - d) allowing a third party to provide Services to the Client where that third party has, without the Client's knowledge or encouragement, employed a former employee of Rowe Partners.

6 USE OF REPORT AND ADVICE

- 6.1 All communication by Rowe Partners with the Client, its employees or agents, whether written or oral are provided solely for the use of the Client in connection with the engagement, and shall not be used for any other purpose or referred to in any document or made available to any other person (except the Client's lawyers or other professional advisors assisting in the engagement or as required by law) without Rowe Partners' prior written consent.
- 6.2 Where the Client requests to receive any report or correspondence electronically which contains opinions or advice, Rowe Partners will not be responsible for any unauthorised copying, interception, interference, or delivery failure of the transmission. Rowe Partners also does not warrant that the electronic transmission is free of malicious software or that it will not harm the Client's computer systems. The Client agrees that it is responsible for taking precautions to ensure the integrity of its computer systems.
- 6.3 Written advice and final reports shall take precedence over any oral advice and interim reports. Rowe Partners is not responsible for updating any opinions, advice or reports subsequent to the issue of a final version.
- 6.4 The Client acknowledges that Rowe Partners will rely upon information provided to it by the Client in preparing documents pursuant to this Agreement.

7 PROFESSIONAL FEES AND PAYMENT TERMS

- 7.1 The Client agrees to pay any tax or other charge imposed on Rowe Partners (now or in the future) in relation to any transactions arising in connection with, or as an outcome of, this Agreement. This includes (but is not limited to) any goods and service tax ("GST") imposed under the A New Tax System (Goods and Service Tax) Act 1999 (Commonwealth) as amended.
- 7.2 Any fees charged by Rowe Partners under this Agreement will be initially calculated exclusive of GST. Where GST is payable on any supply provided under this Agreement, the Client agrees that the fee payable for this supply will be increased by an amount equivalent to the GST applicable to that supply.
- 7.3 If it is necessary for Rowe Partners to terminate the engagement for the reasons set out in the Engagement Letter or for any other reason that Rowe Partners considers justifies termination, Rowe Partners shall be entitled to its fees incurred up to the engagement termination date. Rowe Partners will be entitled to charge for such time as its staff reasonably spend in bringing the engagement to an end, including notifying third parties of the end of the engagement and returning documents to the Client.
- 7.4 Expenses, including travel and subsistence, and goods and services purchased on the Client's behalf, are charged at cost. For travel, Rowe Partners standard policies apply which are to use economy class within Australia.
- 7.5 Rowe Partners will be entitled to require payments on invoicing once significant amounts of time have been incurred. Invoices are payable within 14 days of receipt except where the Engagement Letter states otherwise. The Client agrees to indemnify Rowe Partners for its legal or debt collection costs incurred in recovering any overdue amounts from the Client or otherwise enforcing its rights under this Agreement.
- 7.6 Long Term outstanding accounts may result in a "stop work" notice being issued. All outstanding work in progress will be billed at this time.
- 7.7 It is our requirement that the owners/directors of the business personally guarantee the payment of all accounts for professional fees, including out-of pocket expenses rendered by us from time to time.

8 RETENTION OF RECORDS

- 8.1 The final Financial Statements, and any other documents which we are specifically engaged to prepare, together with any original documents given to us by you, shall be the property of you. Any other documents brought into existence by us including general journals, working papers, the general ledger, draft financial statements and copies of tax returns, will remain our property at all times.

9 COPYRIGHT AND INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY

- 9.1 Unless otherwise agreed, Rowe Partners retains copyright (and all other intellectual property rights) in all material provided to the Client or otherwise generated in the course of carrying out the engagement.
- 9.2 Rowe Partners retains copyright (and all other intellectual property rights) in, and the Client shall keep confidential, any methodologies and technology used by Rowe Partners to carry out an engagement.

10 PERSONAL INFORMATION (PI) & PRIVACY
